Wormleysburg Resident Inducted into the Signator Investors, Inc. 'Hall of Fame'

Donald Healey recognized for long standing commitment to integrity and excellence in customer service in financial services

July 10, 2014 – Signator Investors, Inc., powered by John Hancock Financial Network, announced it recently inducted Wormleysburg resident Donald Healey Sr., AIF®, CFP®, president of The Healey Group, an affiliate of Boston Partners Financial Group, LLC, into its Hall of Fame.

Since Signator's Hall of Fame's inception in 1956, fewer than 250 financial representatives have joined the elite group. The main criterion for being tapped to enter the Hall of Fame is earning the company's ACE (Achieving Client Excellence) award at least 15 times. Each year, only a select number of representatives receive the ACE award, which highlights client excellence, personal ethics and integrity, and the ability to solve clients' financial needs. Healey received the ACE award for the 15th time in 2013.

"To be inducted into Signator's Hall of Fame, financial representatives must have proven their commitment to providing exceptional client service throughout their careers," explained Brian Heapps, CLU®, ChFC®, president. "We look to our 'Hall of Famers' to be role models in our business based on a foundation of integrity and service. It's a great pleasure to welcome Donald as one of our newest inductees."

Healey is a 30-year veteran of the financial services industry. He is also a Life Member of the Million Dollar Round Table and has received awards for Cabinet Club Financial Representative and Sales Manager of the Year. Healey has held sales management and agency management positions with both John Hancock and Mutual of New York. He also offers continuing education instruction to CPAs, financial planners and life insurance agents. Healey is an active leader of the community and has served on the board of several non-profit organizations.
